

Biography

Dr. Qinfen Lu is a full professor in the College of Electrical Engineering, Zhejiang University, China. She is also the Vice-chairmen and Secretary-general of Linear Motor Institute, Chinese Electrotechnical Society. She has already taken charge of over 20 projects, published over 150 papers, and authorized 23 Chinese inventive patents. Her main researches include linear motors design and control, PM motors design and control, and the simulation of traction systems.